Fire Protection Ltd. is a United Kingdom based Company of passive Fire Protection Engineers and O. E. M. Specialists, marketing a range of products. The Company was initially formed to market the hugely successful Flamebar BW11 Fire Rated Duct System, both in the UK and the rest of the world via a number of Licensees.

The Company is now established in many countries throughout the world working to certified standards required by local Fire Safety Building Codes.

The range of products now include Fire Rated Duct Systems, a range of sealants, Fire Stopping and Fire Sealing Compounds and a range of Flame Retardant Coatings both for hard substrates and fabrics to inhibit spread of flame.

The Company is now poised to expand further into more countries to form a wide customer base.
